May 19 CLOCKS! CLOCKS! AT WHOLESALE,

BY BITTROLFF & SONS, MAIN STREET BETWEEN FIRST AND SECOND,
EVANSVILLE, IND.

EVANSVILLE, IND.

Thirty hour clocks, direct from the manufacturor, comprising every style of wood and from -axes, which we will sail to cash dealers as low as the same articles can be abought at Cincinnatior other Western cities. We shall always keep a good stock on hand, and think we can make it to the interest of country dealers to buy their clocks of us.

THE MYSTER'S SOLVED.

UDGING from the crowd of customers that have been visiting friend ambient store for the past two weeks, we were under the impression that he (as the saying is in commercial parlance) had gone by the board, and in consequence thereof was selling at a great sacrifice, but on further enquiry, we are happy to announce to our readers that such is not the case. He has now on hand a tell assortment of Spring and Summer Dry Goods, and is selling at very low rates—bence the rush to his store.

PRIDE. BY J. G. SAXE. Tis a curious fact as ever was known In human nature, but often shown
Alike in castle and cottage.
That pride, like pigs of a cortain breed.
Will manage to live and thrive on "feed"
As poor as a pauper's pottage!

Of all the notable things on earth, The queerest one is pride of birth, Among our "flerce democracy!" A bridge across a hundred years,
Without a prop to save it from sneers—
Nor even a couple of rotten Peers—
A thing for hughter, sneers and jeers,
Is American aristocracy!

Depend upon it, my snobbish friend. Your family thread you can't ascend. Without good reason to apprehend
You may find it waxed at the further end
By some picbian vocation!
Or, worse than that, your boasted line
May end in a loop of stronger twine
That plagued some worthy relation!

Because you flourish in wordly affairs,
Don't be haughty and put on airs,
With insolent pride of station!
Don't be proud, and turn up your nose,
A: corer people in plainer clothes,
But learn, for the sake of your mind's repose, That wealth's a bubble that comes—and goes!
And that all proud fiesh, wherever it grows,
Is subject to irritation.

The body of the dead Tory was taken and buried by the sexton of the church, as he had no relations in that vicinity.

After an absence of two hours or thereabout, the negroes returned, having succeeded in capturing Finley and one stranger who were that night confined, and the next morning at the earnest solicition of Judge V-, liberated on the promise of amending their lives.

It was in the month of October of the same year that Catharine —— was sitting by ar upper back window in her father's house knit ting; though autumn, the weather was mile and the window was hoisted about three inches. About 60 or 70 feet from the house was a barn, a huge old-fashioned edifice, with upper and lower folding doors; and accidentally casting her eye towards the barn she saw a small door (on a range with the front door and window at which she was sitting) open and a number of men enter. The occurrence of the summer immediately presented itself. Her father and the other males of the family were at work in a field some distance from the house, which led her to suspect that that opportunity had been improved, probably by some of Van Zant's friends, to plunder and revenge his
